

ALL THAT JAZZ

KEYNOTE

PRESNETATION

BENJAMIN

Entertainment

- The entertainment of the 1920's was a great evolution from past years. Jazz was born, talkies were started, and Walt Disney's legacy Mickie Mouse was born.

BIRTH OF A NATION

- birth of a nation was a film about the civil war and reconstruction after the war. it also shows what was probably the start of the ku-klux-klan. riots broke out about the movie and in one reported case a white man killed a black teenager after watching this movie.

A black and white promotional image for the movie 'Wings'. It features Clara Bow in two roles: a biplane pilot in the background and a nurse in the foreground. A biplane is in the top left corner. The title 'Clara Bow' is in a white script font, and 'In Wings' is in a bold, outlined sans-serif font.

Clara Bow

In Wings

CLARA BOW

- clara bow was a famous silent film star in the 1920's. she was in 12 movies, and was the "It girl" of the 1920's because of her involvement in the movie It Girl. clara bow also had to take care of her mother sarah who one day february, 1922. held a butchers knife up to clara bow's throat. clara's mother died a year later. clara was almost killed because her mother found out she was going to be in the movies. she was idolized by women in the u.s. for her great success in the silent movies.

RUDOLPH VALENTINO

- rudolph valentino was an italian actor in the united states. he was mired by many women and starred in a few silent movies like the four horsemen of the apocalypse and the sheik when he died at the age of thirty one his coffin was viewed by money people mostly women which also caused mass hysteria among them.

steamboat willie

STEAMBOAT WILLIE

- steamboat willie was the third mickey mouse cartoon. it is a parody of steamboat billie jr. in steamboat willie there are some censored versions due to animal cruelty... taking a cat by the tail and swinging it above your head is both a stupid idea and beyond the law of physics... trust me my brother tried... back to the cartoon “it was the first synchronized sound cartoon”

MARY PICKFORD

- mary pickford was a canadian born actress. she performed in motion pictures in america and was voted 24th greatest female actor ever. she produced two of the greatest silent films of all time, my best girl and sparrows. she was also named an honorary colonel in the navy and christened the “Little Sister”. she petitioned canada to give her her citizenship back once because she thought she lost it after her marriage... she never did.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN

- charlie chaplin was a silent film director. “he was ranked 10th greatest male screen legend of all time. he used comedy in his films a lot. he even started writing his own movies. he was once called “the only genius to come out of the movie industry”.

